

Argentina Dove Hunt

Spend four days and three nights in the glorious Cordoba, Argentina.

You and three guests will relish in record-setting Cordoba dove hunting in combination with first-class accommodations, world-famous cuisine, the industry's most personable service, and legendary hospitality. The ranch offers access to 160,000 acres of Argentina's best dove hunting in one of the most unique lodges in South America, offering a beautiful balance between authentic old-world charm and modern luxury living. When you're sore and exhausted from a full day of hunting, relax by the pool with fine wine and a massage. All food and beverages (including wine, beer, and cocktails) are included with this package, making it a buddy trip of a life time.
